The Feast of Saints Cosmas and Damian

This Saturday (September 26) was the feast of Saints Cosmas and Damian. These two saints are commemorated together in one of our Eucharistic Prayers in Mass, the Roman Canon, or the First Eucharistic Prayer. Within this First Eucharistic Prayer, we honor and ask for intercession from two long lists of saints, including: the Apostles and those who closely assisted them; the first several popes; and a number of early martyrs who witnessed to the faith in the first few centuries of the Church. Since we occasionally ask for their prayers during the height of Mass and have just celebrated their feast day, I thought it would be good to know a bit about the lives of Saints Cosmas and Damian. Whatever more we can learn from them, it is always good to know a bit about those to whom we ask to pray for us.

Saints Cosmas and Damian were brothers from Arabia in the Middle East, and they lived in the third century, before Christianity was legalized across most of the world. They studied medicine in Syria and became eminent physicians. Their faith led them to great acts of charity, using their skills not only to care for the body but also to express their faith and seek the salvation of souls. Thus, they are known as members of the Moneyless Ones, a group of saints who especially modeled a love of poverty for us, because they would not accept payment for their services, preferring rather to serve in charity. Through these works of mercy and their great skill in medicine, Cosmas and Damian gained the esteem of the local populace.

When another persecution of Christians broke out, Cosmas and Damian were too well known to hide, and so were apprehended for their faith. A faith which they did not hide, even while knowing the consequences. They were martyred by beheading around the year 283. Following their deaths, many miracles were attributed to them, and in some cases, the brothers were said to have appeared to those healed through their intercession. They continued to heal in their death as they had in their life, and have brought faith and comfort to those who ask for their intercession. Along with St. Luke the Evangelist, Cosmas and Damian are patrons of medicine, doctors, surgeons, and pharmacists.

Saints Cosmas and Damian, pray for us!

THE BOTH/AND OF FAITH AND POLITICS

October 22 | 7:30 pm | Stievenard Hall, St. Bernadette

With guest speaker Kenneth Craycraft, PhD

Catholic moral theology does not endorse any particular political system as the proper way to order our lives together. Our faith does, however, stand in critical judgment over all political and legal structures. This talk will explain how those two things should be held in tension as we think about our own political lives.

Dr. Kenneth Craycraft is the James J. Gardner Family Chair of Moral Theology at Mount St. Mary's Seminary and School of Theology. He writes monthly columns for OSV News and The Catholic Telegraph. He is the author of Citizens Yet Strangers: Living Authentically Catholic in a Divided America.

NEWS AND EVENTS

Kairos Cookies are Due!

For the Kairos Prison Ministry. We need prayed-over, homemade cookies, 3 inches in diameter, to perform corporal works of mercy for the imprisoned at the Warren County Institute. Please deliver these cookies before and after all Masses this weekend, September 26 and 27, to your church's vestibule. You can earn one service hour per two dozen cookies. Please package one dozen cookies per gallon press-and-seal bag. No Ziploc bags with sliders allowed.

Cemetery of the Innocents

Attention Stella Maris parishioners! The Respect Life Ministry is pleased to announce that, with the help of our local Knights of Columbus organization, the Cemetery of the Innocents will be erected at St. Thomas More Church on September 26 and remain for two weeks. The cemetery is a pro-life display that seeks to bring awareness to the widespread cases of abortions in our country. It will consist of approximately 300 crosses, with each cross representing 10 abortions that occur daily in the USA. Let us pray to God and ask for His forgiveness, mercy, and the healing of our country.

Writers' Group

Several interest groups have grown out of the Stella Maris Institute over the last year. One of these is a writers' group. You are invited to join us at our next meeting on Tuesday, September 29, at 7 pm in Stievenard Hall. We are a community of new and seasoned writers who want to hone their craft, share thoughts and inspiration, receive honest and constructive feedback, all while growing in friendship over a common interest. If you are interested in this group, we encourage you to fill out the Google Form at tinyurl.com/5n7z6jee or scan the QR code.

Ohio March for Life

Friday, October 2 is the Ohio March for Life in Columbus. The Knights of Columbus are chartering a bus or van for this event and would like to offer seats to any of our parishioners who would like to join us. We leave from St. Thomas More Shelter at 6:45 am and return before 5:00 pm. We will be attending 9:00 am Mass at the Cathedral in Columbus, and Archbishop Casey will be one of the speakers at the event! Please contact Fred Kinkel if you're interested at fred.kinkel@gmail.com or text at 513-256-6482.

The Stella Maris Parish Family 40 Days for Life Day

Join parishioners of Stella Maris on Saturday, October 3, to pray for one hour outside of an abortion facility located at 2314 Auburn Ave, Cincinnati, OH. We need your help to be a silent witness to protect life and for the conversion of hearts in our culture. We are seeking to provide coverage between the hours of 7 am and 7 pm on October 3. A sign-up sheet will be in the St. Thomas More vestibule, or you can sign up by visiting www.signupgenius.com/go/4090945ABA929AB9-65490949-prayer or by scanning the QR code. Please call Julie Scott at (513) 509-4785 with questions.

Human Life Chain Event

Join us on Sunday, October 4, from 2-3 pm on the sidewalks of Rt. 125 (800 Ohio Pike) near St. Thomas More Church to be a witness to the sacredness of all life from conception to a natural death. Since 1987, believers have gathered nationwide on the first Sunday of October to prayerfully stand for life. Bring your whole family and pick your place to stand (or sit on chairs if needed) for the sanctity of life. This is a wonderful way for the older children to get service hours. Please bring chairs or umbrellas if needed. Signs and water will be available, and bathrooms will be open.

Our Lady of Fatima Rosary Rally

On Saturday, October 10, from 12-1 pm, join Tim Glutz of St. Bernadette and Rose Mary Bell and John Aicholtz of St. Thomas More as we pray to Our Lady of Fatima at the St. Thomas More Grotto and ask Our Lady to intercede for us. Saint Louis de Montfort stated, 'Public prayer is far more powerful than private prayer to appease the anger of God and call down His mercy.'

Lectio & Life Bible Study

Bring your Bible and lunch on Thursdays from 12-1 pm in Stievenard Hall on the St. Bernadette Campus for Lectio & Life, a new Bible Study facilitated by Brad Bursa, director of evangelization at Stella Maris. Email Brad at bbursa@stellamarisfamily.org if you are interested in joining the mailing list for Lectio & Life. For more information about this and other Bible Studies, please visit stellamarisfamily.org/bible-studies.

St. Bernadette SVdP Needs Multi-Use Plastic Shopping Bags

They also need egg cartons. Please drop off bags and cartons in the entryway of St. Bernadette Church.

Part-Time Music Director | St. Mary & St. Peter Churches

The Stella Maris Family of Parishes is seeking a part-time Music Director to serve as the organist/pianist for liturgies at both its St. Mary's (Bethel) and St. Peter's (New Richmond) locations. The work would include weekend Masses, Holy Days of Obligation, other special liturgies, and potentially weddings and funerals. Visit stellamarisfamily.org/employment for the job description here. Interested candidates should send a cover letter and resume to hr@stellamarisfamily.org.

Whiz Kids Tutoring | faith-based, one-on-one mentoring

The program takes place on Wednesdays from 5-6 pm during the 2026/27 school year at Withamsville Church of Christ. Tutors must be +16. You will be paired with the same child for the school year and will help encourage them in their growing reading skills, build up their confidence, and share the love of Christ.
